CANTILLON UP AGAINST NEW RULE

Washington Manager Tries to Shift Pitcher too Often-17 Inning Tie Game with Chicago—Row at Boston Game -- Local Double Header Opening.

American League.

Chicago, May 13.—Chicago and Washington of the American lengue battled for seventeen innings today, and the game was called on account of darkness with the score 1 to 1. Manager Cantillon's tactics in the seventeenth inning probably saved his team from defeat. The locals had men on second and third, wit hone out. Manager Sullivan then took himself out of the game and sent in Welday a left handed batter. When Cantillon saw this move he sent Hughes, who was then pitching to right field and sent in Gray, a left handed pitcher. Suillvan countered by taking out Welday after Gray had pitched one ball to him. Then Cantillon tried to withdraw Gray and send Hughes back against Owens. Tughes back against Owens, a right handed hitter. According to the new ules it was up to Gray to finish pitch-innings.

Furnished Bulk of Stock Transactions

New York, May 13.—The largest part of the transactions in stocks to-cay was made in a handful of selected curities. The reasons for the selec securities. The reasons for the selection were obscupe so far as any authentic news was concerned. There was a cloud of rumors in circulation all day, but none of them was confirmed. The anthracite group amongst the rallroads was the favorite subject of these rumors. The supposition persisted that something was about to occur which would prove at ralles to the sisted that something was about to oc-cur which would prove of value to the stockholders. The favorite rumor was that the coul mining properties would be separated from the rallroads and in some way distributed to the rallroad stockholders. While this action was supposed to be in consequence of the supreme court decision on the com-modities clause, that decision in fact exempted the roads from the obligation exempted the roads from the obligation to part with their coal properties and caused excited advances in the prices of those stocks because of the sup-of those success because of the sup-posed advantage to those companies of this privilege. The special atten-tion given to Delaware and Hudson gave rise to a rumor that it was to figure in the proposed adjustment in a particular way, owing to the broad scope of the charter privileges. The assertion that an increase of the Dela-ware and Hudson dividend was immiment was met with the explanation that this company declares a full year's dividend in December for quarterly distribution, leaving no occasion for a decision on the subject earlier than next December. In the case of Allis Chalmers preferred there expend the Chaimers preferred there came a dis-claimer also with color of official au-thority of reports of intended dividend resumptions at an early day. The speculative sentiment was singed more or less with suspicion by these evidences of inconsistency in the adjustments of some of the market movements. The Rock Island demonstration was attributed to the recent return was attributed to the recent return from a foreign trip of one of the capi-talists most prominent in that and a number of other properties which have moved in response to the supposed resumption of stock market activities by this interest. The upward start in the Southern Rallway stocks was unexplained by an special news. This movement, coupled with that in Rock Island any Island, gave an appearance of favor for the low priced stocks which awak-ened some sympathetic movements in other stocks. The general tone was

m. but the movement was narrow, nices gave way at the last after odding all day. The Harrimans start-upwards, but met selling pressure am such as has been in evidence in hose stocks for some time past. The time mone? market here was reported a trifle easier, without any quotable change in rates. Favorable deductions change in rates. Favorable deductions were drawn from the unimportant dimensions of the French strike demonstration. The caution of the speculation in view of the suspicious signs in the market were exemplified again in the way in which prices gave way at the end of the day and closed weak. Bonds were firm. Hughes back against Owens, a right handed hitter. According to the new rules it was up to Gray to finish pitching to the mah who was then batting, or give a pass.

After some heated argument the umpires forced Gray to continue pitching to Owens. He did and passed him. Tannehill was the next man up and Hughes returned to the box, while Ganley went to right field. Tannehill hit to Hughes and Altizer was forced at the plate. White ended the chances with a grounder to Delehanty. White allowed only one hit in the last ten innings.

KING JAMES BY SIX LENGTHS. Won Metropolitan, Handicap in Easy Fashion-Oral Bets Were Made.

New York, May 13.-The long deawaited or ferred and anxiously awaited opening of the metropolitan racing season, which was completed this year with the running of the classic Metropolitan handleap, passed into turf history to day with the winning of the blue rib bon event of the occasion by C. Hildreth's fleet four year old colt, King James, from a field of eleven starters. Fayette, the Madden entry, finished six lengths behind, with Jummier, a six year old gelding entered by C. C. Smithson, a close third. King James was quoted at 8 to 5 and 2 to 1. The conditions under which the season was ushered in were ideal on point of weather. In the grandstand the at-tendance was considerable slimmer than on previous Metropolitan handi cap days, the entire number aggregating less than 10,090, but in view of th ban placed upon race track betting last year by the Hart-Agnew has the fall-ring off was not such as to create sur-

April 13, 1906, new records have been made both in and out of competition. As the third annual tournament of the National association is only a week away, it was desirable that as authentic a list as possible should be compiled. This has been the aim, and it is possible the most correct compilation that has ever been made. Following are the records:

National Tournament World's Records

PIRATES LOST A CHANCE TO SIGN TY COBB. Pittsburg Scout Had First Chance at the Georgia Phenom. A basebail scout is the chillest proposition on the face of the earth. He suspects every man. He knows that the club president back of him has an account at the bank and he is under the impression that every man connected with baseball is trying to cause it to dwindle.

If he is watching a pitcher and the latter fans sixteen men, gives no bases on balls, does not allow a hit and drives in sight rams, with his trusty was club.

in eight runs with his trusty war club, what does the scout remark? "Luck," says he. The manager of a hall club, in his opinion, is a fellow who can't be be-leved; the president is one who has designs upon his employer's pocket-book; the player is in high favor with fortune, and all are in a conspiracy to take the money of the man who sends take the money of the man who sends him out to take a look at ball players. And this suspicion cost the Pittsburg team the services of Ty Cobb. Which is a story that George Leidy, manager of the San Antonio ball club, ilkes to tell. For it was Leidy that gave Ty to baseball. "It was over in the South Atlantic league that I first saw Tyrus," said Mr. Leidy. "I was the manager of the Augusta team and Ty came to me. He was awkward. But how he could hit and how he could field! And above all things how he could get around thoses

Two-Men—1907, John Nelson and Walter Tuthill, Brooklyn, 1,220; 1908, John McGuirk and John Grady, Paterson, N. J., 1,318.

Five-Men—1907, Corinthians, New York, 2,814; 1908, Brunswick, New York, 2,893.

"Fine for me, I thought for I could see those two scouts bidding against each other in a wild endeavor to get Tyrus Cobb. "I saw the man from Pittsburg first.

How do you like him?" I queried.

"Oh, he had a lucky day," he answered.

"He does it every day," I retorted.

"Quit your smoking," he answered." How much will you give for him?" queried. "Wait till I look him over tomor-

local basebail opening, Norwich fans are to be rewarded on Saturday at Sachem park by having a double header for the first league attraction, two teams of the Eastern Connecticut and two teams of the Rhoda Island-Connecticut league appearing. These will be Norwich-Taftville vs. North Grosvenordale in the Eastern Connecticut league, and the Norwich C. A. C. team against the Westerly team in the Rhode Island-Connecticut league. They both have dates here and as the C. A.
